NATIONAL FACIAL PLASTIC SURGERY COURSE

7th Hands-on Cadaveric Dissection program in India

Welcome To The 7th National Facial Plastic Surgery Course

Facial plastic and reconstructive surgery is a relatively new specialty in the Indian subcontinent with suitable contributions by plastic surgeons, otolaryngologists, ophthalmologists, maxillofacial surgeons and dermatologists in an orchestrated fashion. Facial reconstructive and cosmetic surgery India Trust (frcsi®) would like to invite surgeons interested in the science and art of facial cosmesis to partake in this unique course which comprehensively creates a foundation for further clinical expertise in facial plastic surgery.

The course has been designed to suit the daily needs of a facial aesthetician and focuses more on practical hands on experience rather than oft repeated theory lectures. The course has been designed into three modules. Module 1 (sep 2nd) covers soft tissue rejuvenation and bony skeletal fracture fixation, while the module 2 (sep 3rd-5th) delves in depth onto the various facial aesthetic surgeries. The module 3 (sep 6th) trains the participants in robotic hands on surgeries.

All this has been planned into 4 and half days to give you the best possible exposure to renowned international and national faculty from all disciplines and various schools of thought. We sincerely believe in helping you gain insights into the dynamic concepts of facial beautification surgery.
